Message: What must the rest of the states think of Mississippi right now? We are cutting the one area that you ran on in your campaign, education. Gulfport now has a Magnet school, the first on the coast and with the state cuts you know that the federal government will lay heavy fines to our state for not following guidelines. I feel that the state and your office cut where it could be cut the fastest, not thinking about the end results, the children of Mississippi. Unless we change this and put more towards our children. You campaigned on education, you should be fighting against this, what has happened to you? I would like a response please.
Thank you,
David Witt, concerned parent
